BALLINDERRY PARK

EST. 1740 · COUNTY GALWAY

VENUE FACT SHEET

A Georgian estate, one group at a time

A restored c.1740 country house on 41 acres of private parkland near Kilconnell, Ballinasloe, in East Galway. Hired on an exclusive-use basis for weddings, celebrations, group stays, retreats and team offsites.

Exclusive use	For a wedding the manor, the Coach House, the glamping and all 41 acres are yours alone: no other guests, no other event.
Sleeps up to 44	Manor House: 5 bedrooms. Coach House: 4 en-suite bedrooms. Glamping: Mongolian Yurt, Canopy Tent and Safari Bunk House, all heated. The glamping has outdoor toilets and indoor toilets, and an outdoor shower area.
Weddings	Up to 200 guests on the day; 150 seated across two marquees on the lawn (50–75 each). Smaller weddings dine in the Manor House dining room. Ceremony on the lawns, moving to the Stables if it rains. The legal part (the civil registration) is done at a registry office; the ceremony and celebration happen here, led by a celebrant. No midnight music cut-off.
The Stables	Renovated and heated: 20–30 for a yoga class or workshop, 70–100 seated for an event. Day hire €400.
Food	Dinner menus from €35 pp (Rustic €35, Select €45, Premium with wine €75). Breakfast from €12 pp. Lunch from €25 pp. Afternoon tea €32 pp. Open bar €40 pp a night. Own alcohol welcome, no corkage.
Wedding fee	Venue fee €750 plus €15 per guest (staying or day guest).
On the estate	Wood-fired hot tub (fits 6, free with a direct stay), Coach House bar, kitchen and stove, private terrace, gardens, a forest walk to the river, high-speed Wi-Fi, courtyard parking.
Dogs	Welcome. Dog-friendly package €40.
Accessibility	A ground-floor accessible bedroom in the Coach House. Gravel courtyard outside.
Stays	Check-in from 3pm, check-out by 11am. Two-night minimum at weekends.
Getting here	Just off the M6 between Galway and Dublin. Galway city 35 minutes, Shannon Airport 1 hour, Dublin and Dublin Airport about 1.5 hours. Woodlawn train station 8 minutes, with free pick-up.

THE STORY

Seven centuries of oaks

Baile an Doire, "the townland of the oak trees". Home to the Comyn family for two centuries, restored from 2000 by George and Susie Gossip, and opened for exclusive use by Rowan and Laoise in 2024.

EXPERIENCES

Add to the stay

Murder mystery, cocktail making, whiskey tasting, Irish cheese and wine, yoga, Estate Olympics, garden-to-table cooking, and coach day trips to Connemara, the Cliffs of Moher and the Aran Islands.

ballinderrypark.com · hello@ballinderrypark.com · +353 85 190 3914

Ballinderry Park, Ballinasloe, County Galway, H53 XP26 · Prices at November 2026; every quote confirms the final figures.